

To the Venues

According to the ICTMT16 detailed programme:

The opening of the conference will be on Wednesday, June 7, in the Central Building of the National & Kapodistrian University of Athens. If you choose the metro, you should use the red line and “Panepistimio” Station (Panepistimiou exit). Please check the plan view here.

The next 3 days the conference will take place in Maraslio Didaskalio.

If you choose the metro, you should use the blue line and “Evangelismos” Station (Vas. Sofias/Evangelismos exit). Then on the corner where the traffic light is, you take Marasli Street, where you walk up for no more than 5 minutes to the Venue (4, Marasli Street). Please check the plan view.

About Friday evening’s optional activities

For those who have chosen to visit the Acropolis Museum \(or here\), people from the LOC will wait for you at the entrance of the Museum, on Friday 9th of June, around 17.20. The visits start at 17.30 and you will visit the Museum in two groups. The first group enters the Museum at 17.30 and the second one at 17.40. If you choose the metro, you should use the red line and “Akropoli” Station.

For the ‘Walk & Talk: Aristotle’s Peripatetics’, we will start at the Acropolis Museum entrance (whether you have visited the Museum or not), at 19:00. People from the LOC will already be there.

For dinner, we will meet around 20:00 at Balcony Restaurant & Bar (1, Veikou Street) near the Acropolis Museum.

Looking forward to seeing you in Athens!

Your organizers of 16th International Conference on Technology in Mathematics Teaching.
