

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

8th Panhellenic Conference on Philosophy of Science National & Kapodistrian University of Athens, 5-7 December 2022

The Department of History and Philosophy of Science of the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens announces the 8th Panhellenic Conference on Philosophy of Science to be held in Athens on December 5-7, 2024.

The thematic sections of the conference include all areas of philosophy of science (general philosophy of science, philosophy of special sciences), as well as areas of philosophy (metaphysics, epistemology, ethics, philosophy of language, philosophy of mind, history of philosophy, political philosophy) to the extent that they are related to issues concerning science. The conference invites submissions for contributed papers and symposia and is open to all members of the academic community, including PhD candidates and postgraduate students. Presentations can be in Greek or English. There is no registration fee.

Abstracts for contributed papers should be between 500 and 700 words, not including references (up to 5 references can be included). The allocated time for delivering contributed papers will be 30 minutes, including discussion. Submissions of a symposium proposal must include a general description of the topic and its significance (between 500 and 700 words) and summaries (up to 250 words) for each contribution. Symposia will be allocated 2 hours, and can include 3 to 5 talks. They can have any format.

All abstracts should be submitted electronically and will be reviewed anonymously by two members of the Scientific Committee. Any participant can appear on the conference programme at most twice (as a presenter of a contributed paper and a participant in a symposium). We particularly welcome submissions from women, ethnic minorities and other under-represented groups.

Confirmed Keynote Speakers:

Stéphanie Ruphy (Ecole normale supérieure (ENS Paris) - Université PSL)

James Ladyman (University of Bristol)

Deadline for submission of abstracts: 30 June 2024

Notifications of abstract acceptance: August 2024
